

COACHES AND CONSULTANTS IN THEIR WIDE MAJORITY ARE UNABLE TO PROVIDE A SIMPLE, EFFICIENT AND INTEGRATED VIDEO-CONFERENCING EXPERIENCE ON THEIR WEBSITE

- Which takes the client out of the coach's/consultant's website
- Does not allow to have any automated cancellation policy
- Makes the overall experience not look really in phase with the price charged per consultation

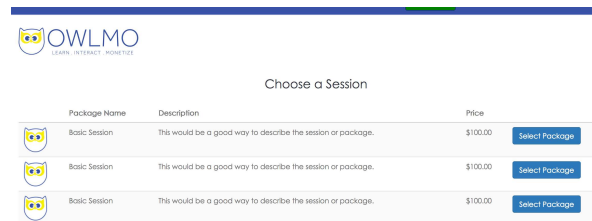

OUR SOLUTION!

AN ALL-IN-ONE SOFTWARE, DIRECTLY INTEGRATED ON THE COACH'S/CONSULTANT'S WEBSITE AND COMPRISED OF

- An interactive calendar for easy scheduling
- A safe and secure automated payment system
- An integrated video conferencing system with various functionalities
- A direct messaging system to simplify communication ahead of each consultation
- An email notification system so no one ever misses a consultation

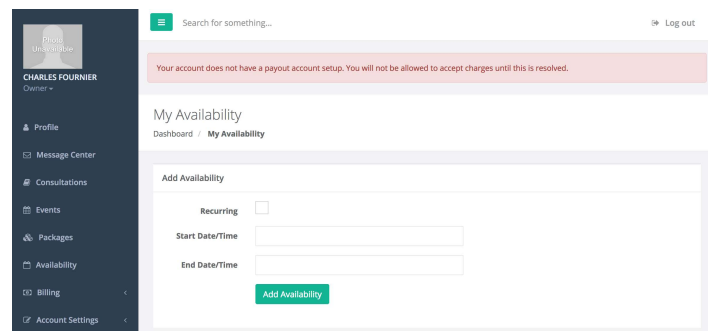

- The software is embedded on your website through a link
- All your clients or incoming leads who click on it are driven to an interface where they can book a single consultation through our interactive calendar or buy one of your packages after entering their information

- The whole interface is fully customizable according to your website's color coding, logo and domain name...so your clients never have the feeling they left your website!!

- You can do all your profile set up from a simple and user-friendly dashboard

OWLMO enables you to manage all your bookings, payments and offers a video-conferencing system ALL IN ONE PLACE so you never have to look for 3 different providers anymore.
